

“ATR Levels SR/ORB”

Is this indicator package for you?

1. Do I already use Support/Resistance levels and/or Opening Range Breakouts in my trading methodology?
2. Does my current trading setup include criteria for overbought/oversold conditions?
3. Do I typically identify trend direction based on opening range breakouts?
4. Do I believe that back-testing my setups will help me be a better trader?
5. Am I willing to put in the time and effort to perform exhaustive back-testing and analyze the results to find optimum parameters for my setups?
