

“Standard Deviation Reversals”

Is this indicator package for you?

1. Do I already use trend lines and/or trend channels in my trading setups?
2. Do my current trading setups attempt to enter in the direction of the trend?
3. Does my current trading methodology attempt to identify trend reversals?
4. Do I believe that back-testing my setups will help me be a better trader?
5. Am I willing to put in the time and effort to perform exhaustive back-testing and analyze the results to find optimum parameters for my setups?
